An offering will be taken to support UrbanLife

Leon sees himself as an encourager—a vessel chosen, to bring joy into the hearts of many people. His concerts are always filled with excitement, humor and inspirational teaching. He crosses all age groups and ethnic boundaries and is a total performer who can sing, dance and motivate.

Now, Leon Patillo is bringing his gifts to San Diego in a very special benefit concert to support the work of UrbanLife. UrbanLife helps young people transform our neighborhoods by building people that love God, neighbor and 'hood. The focus is to change lives and see our neighborhoods become great places to live and raise families. There will be a free will offering at the concert, and 100% of the proceeds will go to help support UrbanLife programs.
