“Falling Short”

CONTEXT

It's hard to determine exactly) when 1-3 John was written (though probably at the end of the 1st century) because the false teaching that is addressed would have taken some time to develop. False teaching had created confusion and crisis in the church, with deceptive voices coming from former followers so John writes to bring believers back to Jesus. The author is most likely the apostle John who wrote the Gospel of John and Revelation. Church tradition holds that John was in Ephesus when he wrote these letters and that he pastored churches in Asia Minor which would have included the churches talked about in Revelation.

1 John begins with fellowship—shared life with God and shared life with one another. There is both a vertical and horizontal relationship talked about. When this vertical and horizontal relationship is happening John writes that his joy is complete. John roots all of what he is saying in real history. He was a participant in the life and ministry of Jesus, and he writes with authority because he was an eyewitness to the ministry of Jesus.

John then moves to images of light and darkness, which we will see throughout the letters. The world can be a dark place. The heretical teaching happening in these churches is creating darkness. Darkness happens when we stop living truthfully—when we hide, deflect, minimize, or pretend sin has no impact. When that happens, we break our fellowship with God and with one another.

Walking in the light does not mean never sinning. It does mean living openly before God, without trying to conceal things or justify oneself. That is why confession matters. Confession is simply telling the truth—bringing what is real into God's light. And in that light, forgiveness happens - “God is faithful and just and will cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” This cleansing happens because of the work of Jesus.

When we belong to Christ, we can be secure. Sin may disrupt fellowship, but we never cease being God's child. The path forward is remembering to abide in Christ. We don't need to pretend as though everything is fine. Rather, we seek to walk in the light, acknowledge our sin, receive the forgiveness Jesus offers us, and let our faith be seen by the people God brings our way.

SCRIPTURE

1 John 1:1-4

<sup>1</sup>That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched—this we proclaim concerning the Word of life. <sup>2</sup>The life appeared; we have seen it and testify to it, and we proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and has appeared to us. <sup>3</sup>We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>We write this to make our<sup>[a]</sup> joy complete.

John 17:20-23

<sup>20</sup>“My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, <sup>21</sup>that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. <sup>22</sup>I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one— <sup>23</sup>I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.

1 John 1:5-10

<sup>5</sup>This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup>If we claim to have fellowship with him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live out the truth. <sup>7</sup>But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all<sup>[a]</sup> sin.

<sup>8</sup>If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup>If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup>If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word is not in us.

Cornelius Plantinga Jr – Not the Way It’s Supposed to Be: A Breviary of Sin

"Sin is disruption of created harmony and then resistance to divine restoration of that harmony. Above all, sin disrupts and resists the vital human relation to God, and it does all this disrupting and resisting in a number of intertwined ways."

Colossians 1:9-14

<sup>9</sup>For this reason, since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you. We continually ask God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives,<sup>[a]</sup> <sup>10</sup>so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God, <sup>11</sup>being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience, <sup>12</sup>and giving joyful thanks to the Father, who has qualified you<sup>[b]</sup> to share in the inheritance of his holy people in the kingdom of light. <sup>13</sup>For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves,<sup>14</sup> in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

<sup>16</sup> Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup> Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one loaf.
